

Raymond E. Cashour, a witness of lawful age, produced on behalf of the Complainant, after having been duly sworn, deposes and says:

(By Mr. Thompson)

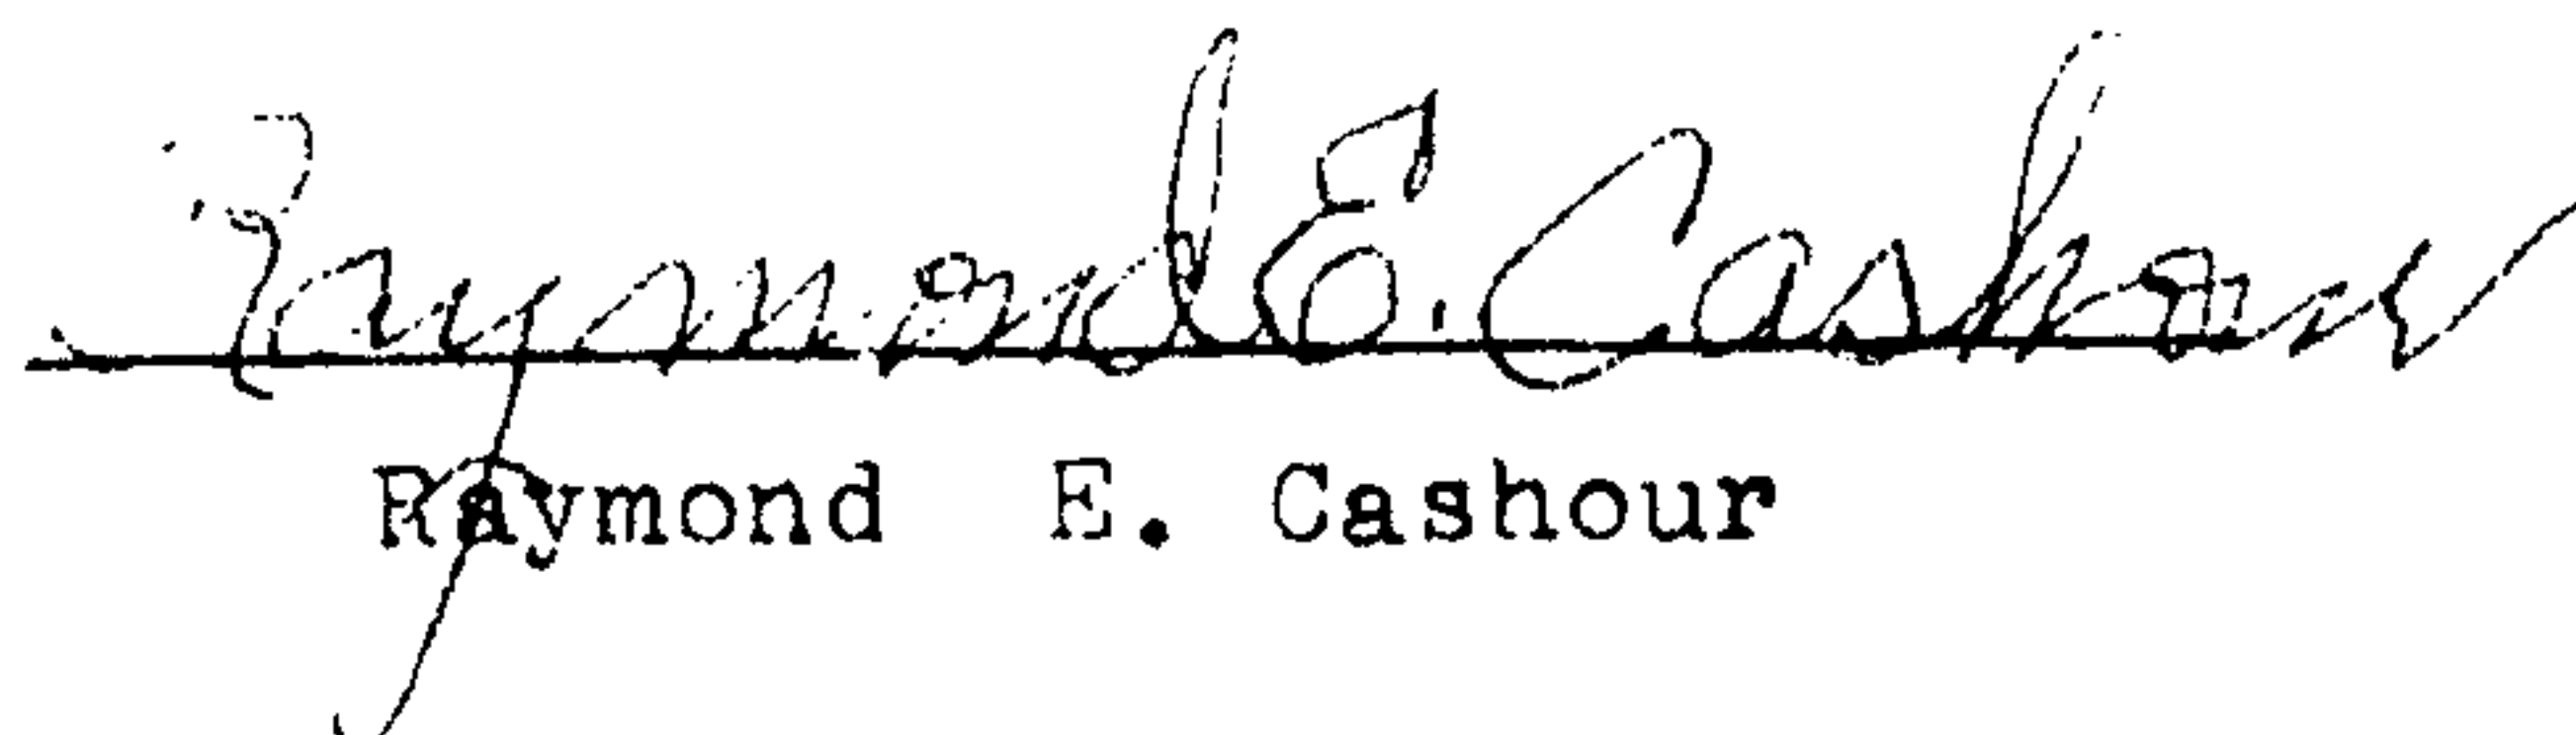

Q. Mr. Cashour, in your prior testimony, you were asked the question, "Do you remember the time when the Hammaker lots were sold to Mr. Sappington?" and your answer to that was "My first knowledge of the sale of these lots was when Jim Sappington acquired them". Now, Mr. Cashour, would you further elaborate on that.

A. I knew that Mr. Sappington had acquired the lots because I saw him pasturing his stock there and I would see him or Mrs. Sappington there frequently feeding and taking care of the stock. At no time did I know, at least not until this case came up, that Eugene Hammond had had anything to do with these lots. However, I did know that Mr. Sappington and Mr. Wilbur Hammaker's father had not gotten along well and I also knew that Mr. Hammaker had been unwilling to sell these lots to Mr. Sappington. I thought, however, that Mr. and Mrs. Sappington must have been able to buy them when I first saw them using them. I realize now that Mr. Hammond could only have been acting for Mr. Sappington because Mr. Hammond never, to my knowledge, and I had personal knowledge of the situation, used, or in any way occupied these lots.

Q. Is there anything further you would like to say about your knowledge of this transaction?

A. As I stated in my earlier testimony, I owned lots adjoining this property and I was well aware of who was using the lots and the fact that Mr. Hammaker was no longer using them and Mr. and Mrs. Sappington were using them. Although I cannot, of course, remember the exact month or year that Mr. and Mrs. Sappington first began to use it as pasture, I know that it occurred several years before my father died because he died in October of 1934 and he used to take care of some stock which I had in a pasture right across the alley from the lots in question and at that time Mr. Sappington's stock was pastured on the lots.

TO THE GENERAL INTERROGATORY: Nothing further.
